

M20 Hearing Protector is a very reliable device designed to provide unique hearing protection and communication means. It can be used with the majority of protective helmets on the market. Both peak impulse and steady-state noise protection is provided. Talk-Through Capability allows to listen to persons standing nearby as well as possible threats.

M20*Hearing Protector

Excellent fit

Adjustable neckband, headband and rail mount.

Modular design

Enables users to replace microphone, headband, neckband and ear pads in the field very easily.

Microphones

High quality, easily adjustable noise-cancelling boom microphone for unique intelligibility.

Talk-Through

Situation awareness through external microphones.

PTT Switch

In-line PTT switch for radio and intercom keying.

Supported Helmets

Designed to seamlessly integrate with helmets such as PASGT, FAST, VIRTUS etc. including mandibles and face visors.

Connectivity

M20 can be connected to any communication system if required.

Dual Ear Communications

Left and Right ear audio can be configured to meet end-user requirements.

User Friendly

Users are very satisfied with user-friendly Human Machine Interface, operation is very easy, noise attenuation as well as speech quality is very high.